William Hildinger, 1261 El Solyo, Campbell, shows daughter, J ulie, and son, Jimmy where the needle went after he had receivtd his polio inoculation at the Campbell public polio clinic held at Hamilton School. The clinic will be held again this Friday at Hamilton and San Tomas but not the following Friday.

Adults Can Get Polio Shots Again on Friday

This Friday, March 22, will be the last public polio vaccination clinic for adults to be held in the Campbell Area during March, the County Health Department has announced.

The clinics which are held at the Hamilton School, 480 E. Hamilton, and the San Tomas School, 1100 Hacienda, have attracted 1192 adults during the two previous "shootings".

The first clinic was held March 8, and 379 adults took advantage of it while 813 were "shot" last Friday. Of the total number, who have received their free vaccinations, 776 of them have been shot at the Hamilton School.

Although there will be no clinics held in this area on Friday, March 29, additional clinics are scheduled for these same schools at the same hours (4:30 to 7:30 p.m.) on Friday April 5, 12, and 19.

W. Elwyn Turner, M. D., director of Public Health, reports that during the first 14 days of the current polio vaccination campaign to immunize all persons under 40 years of age, more than 21,000 persons in the county have taken the first step in protecting themselves against paralytic polio.

By receiving polio vaccinations now, protection against paralytic polio will be built up before September, the expected height of the polio season in Santa Clara County.

Dr. Turner stressed that adults should realize that polio is a disease not limited to children. Last year, over one-third of the cases in Santa Clara County occurred in the adult group over twenty years of age. Local experience also showed that polio is more severe in its effects in this age group.

Woman's Club Aids C of C in Member Drive

Campbell's Chamber of Commerce got a shot in the arm this week when the entire membership of the local Business and Professional Women's Club voted to undertake the drive for new members of the C. of C.

The BPW's will work directly under Mrs. Ann Levine, recently named by the C. of C. directors as membership committee chairman. Mrs. Levine is an active member of the BPW. The club agreed to take on the membership dirve as a club project at its last meeting.

The committee chairman has called a meeting of her women coworkers for Saturday morning.

The group will first meet for breakfast at the Blue Bell Cafe and then adjourn to the Chamber's offices for the meeting.

John Faber, co-owner of the Campbell Memorial Chapel, and also a Los Gatos businessman, will speak to the group on membership campaign plans. Faber, a director of the Los Gatos C. of C., heads the membership committee in that city.

Members of the BPW in teams of two or more plan to contact potential new members. They expect to canvass the entire Campbell business section and have already catalogued the possible new members.

It is expected that the drive will get underway next week. The objective of the local club is to surpass the membership of the Los Gatos Chamber. At the present time, Campbell's membership stands at about 100 while Los Gatos has passed the 300 mark.

OPPOSES VOTE CHANGE

Property owners of Santa Clara County would face far heavier taxes to pay for local government debt, if the present requirement for a two-thirds majority vote for general obligation bonds for counties, cities, and school districts were reduced to a smiple majority. This change is proposed in measures now before the state legislature, S. J. Arnold, general manager of California Taxpayers' association, warns.

Bank Presents Building Plans

Plans for the new bank building in Campbell get the once-over from the City Planning Commission tonight when the Commission holds its regular meeting at the City Hall. The meeting is called for 7:30 p.m.

The American Trust Company plans to build on the corner of E. Campbell Ave. and 2nd Ave. The property has now been cleared of the residences that were on it and it is expected to start construction shortly. The bank will also ask the Planners for parking variance also.

Two hearings are also on tap tonight: Kenneth Fishburn is requesting a change of zone from C-1-S to C-2-S (light to heavy commercial) on property located at 393 E. Hamilton Ave. Cosmo D. Perrotta is also asking for a zone change from multiple residential to commercial.

The Planners will also be asked to approve the plans for a four-unit apartment building on Winchester Road and Cherry Lane.

A letter from the Campbell Chamber of Commerce protesting the two-acre limitation on industrial lots in the new industrial park will also be read.

"Closed Campus" to Get Airing

Whether Campbell High School will become a "closed campus" may be decided by the City Council on Monday night.

A committee composed of Councilmen Richard Morton and Myron L. Fairchild, Chief of Police Robert Locke and Sam Cava, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce recently met with a committee of school trustees and Laurance Hill, district superintendent, to discuss the matter.

Hill maintained that it has been out-of-school youths who have caused the most disturbance around the campus. The school district trustees have offered to pay for extra police protection during the lunch hour, the time when most of the trouble apparently has occurred.

The superintendent also reported that a survey of merchants near the campus indicated that most of them favored an open campus.

City officials, however, are not certain that out-of-school students are wholly to blame for the littering of the streets and the traffic problems that have arisen near the campus. It is expected that Councilman Morton as chairman of the city group will make a report and recommendation to the entire Council Monday night.

District Votes on Water Bonds Tuesday

Santa Clara Valley faces a waer crisis, unless voters in the Water Conservation District approve the $3,000,000 bond issue at the election next Tuesday, March 26, according to E. A. Mirassou, general chairman of the citizens committee sponsoring the bonds.

Mirassou said that the average citizen is not aware of the fact that the underground water supply in Santa Clara Valley is dangerously low and thus may not realize the importance of approving the bond issue next Tuesday. The bond issue needs two-thirds for passage.

The bond issue includes no dams, but the $3 million project is primarily concerned with increasing the District's effectiveness in putting stored water underground. Mirassou said that one-half of the bond issue is earmarked for the acquisition and development of 400 acres of gravel lands necessary for the percolation of water into the underground.

Second major project in the bond issue is the expansion of the Water District's canal system by which stored water is carried to the percolation beds.

"The prime purpose of the Water District is to save flood waters and then get them as quickly as possible into the storage reservoir beneath the valley floor," Mirassou pointed out.

During the 23 years the District has been in existence, five conservation dams have been built and the water supply of the valley has depended upon the District and the support of the people.

New industries have been encouraged to come into the Valley wih the assurance of an adequate water supply, as the people have always supported the growth of the District.

District officials are confident that the people will show their continued confidence in the District by casting an affirmative vote Tuesday. It is estimated that the bond issue will only increase the tax rate 16 cents per $100 assessed valuation of land only—about $1 per residential lot.

Local Woman Gets Appointment As Acting Postmaster in Campbell

In all probability Campbell's next postmaster will be a woman!

This was accepted as an almost virtual certainty this week when it was announced by Rep. Charles Gubser that he had recommended Mrs. Ellis Litynsky, 811 Audrey Ave., Campbell, for the position of acting postmaster.

Mrs. Litynsky will assume the office that will be vacated March March 31 by Ira H. Grim, who is retiring as Campbell postmaster after serving in that capacity for 22 years. Grim became 70 years of age this month and thus must retire.

In a wire to The Press this week, Gubser said that Mrs. Litynsky was recommended by the local advisory committee. He said that postal officials had found her satisfactory and she will be installed on March 31.

The advisory committee, headed by Mrs. Ralph H. Hyde, reported to Gubser that the committee members had considered numerous persons both in and out of postal service and had concluded that Mrs. Litynsky was the best qualified person for the position.

Open Examination

An open competitive examination will be held for the permanent position at a date to be announced by the Civil Service Commission. From the three highest scorers in this examination the permanent appointment will be made. Mrs. Litynsky will take the examination, as will in all probability, Arthur Glen Knowles, a career clerk in the office, who is also seeking the position.

Campbell's acting postmaster-elect has been a resident and home owner in the Campbell area for the past 10 years. Her husband Ed T. Litynsky, a native Californian, is plant superintendent for the Central Ice and Cooling Company. Mrs. Litynsky is at present assistant purchasing agent for Falstaff Brewery in San Jose.

Her mother, Mrs. Sue (Henry T.). Miller, now a resident of Crescent City where her husband is manager of the gas and water company in that city, took an active interest in local civic affairs while a resident here from 1944 to 1953.

Mrs. Miller was amember of the Country Woman's Club and was also the first president of the Republican Woman's Federation. She was also secretary of the Eastern Star which she served as a past matron.

Despite the fact that a woman will probably hold the office, the position will probably continue to be known by its correct nomenclature, "postmaster" and not "postmistress". And Mrs. Litynsky's given name, "Ellis" should add a little to the confusion of genders. Her middle name is "Jerome" to make it even rougher.

Named After Father

The new acting postmaster, who was born in San Diego, was killed in World War I. She was born shortly after the death of her father. Her maiden name was Harbach. She was married to Litynsky in 1944 in Phoenix, Arizona, where she was employed at an army base. Her husband was stationed there.

Mrs. Litynsky had gone originally to Phoenix to visit her mother and stepfather on a vacation from the University of California where she studied four years, majoring in English and Criminology.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller later moved to Campbell and Mrs. Litynsky came here also in 1945 when her husband went overseas. Both thir children, Mark, 11, and Donna, 8, were born in Campbell. The youngsers now attend the San Tomas School.

Party Fetes Grim

Plans for a retirement dinner and party in honor of Ira Grim, Campbell posmaster for the past 22 years, were announced this week by Dick Adams, assistant postmaster.

The dinner honoring Grim, who retires on March 30 because of his age, will be held at the Villa Felice on Tuesday, April 2 at 7:30 p.m.

Friends, neighbors, associates and fellow postal workers are invited to the affair, according to Adams. Those wishing to attend are asked to make reservations with Adams at either FR 8-2153 or FR 8-3244.

Lions to Sponsor 'Harmony Festival'

Sponsored by the Campbell Lions Club, the San Jose chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, will stage its second annual "Harmony Festival" in the Campbell High School auditorium on April 13.

Proceeds from the show, will go into the Art Jacobsen Polio Fund established by the local Lions Club. The fund is used to purchase needed equipment for the treatment of polio among local children.

According to Bob James, chairman of the annual program, eight barbershop quartets, a chorus and a specialty quintet of calypso singers will appear on the program. He said that the "Frisco Four", a San Francisco quartet, will headline the show.

First Aid Classes Start Tonight at Schools in Area

Classes in First Aid instruction start tonight at El Quito Park Elementary School and at Camden Union High School.

Both courses will be conducted simultaneously on identical dates. Starting tonight and ending May 16, classes will meet on each Thursday night during the nine-week period from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock.

Conducted by First Aid Services of San Jose chapter and Campbell branch, American Red Cross, the courses are free to all persons over 18 years of age who may enroll at either school during the two-hour period on Thursday night. They may also enlist by phoning Cy 2-6242.

City Can Increase Services -- But Are You Willing to Pay for 'Em?

Editor's Note: This is the fourth in a series of reports dealing with the needed city improvements and how they can be obtained. The Press is presenting these reports in collaboration with Councilman Richard Morton, who has served continuously on the Council (six years as mayor) since the City was incorporated.

In the final report in this series a ballot will be included so that citizens will be able to give their opinion as to how their City Council should proceed.—G.V.

How should the basic services of the City of Campbell be expanded and what is meant by a "revolving fund"? These are the two points in citywide expansion that are discussed in the report to the people in this issue.

BASIC SERVICES

Requests for the expansion of basic municipal services come befor the City Council regularly. At various times residents have asked for (1) a traffic patrol car to be stationed on their street between 4 and 6 p.m. (2) stricter enforcement of parking limits on the main streets; (3) fire drills for the youngsters in the schools; (4) residential street sweeping; (5) the filling of chuck holes on their streets, etc, etc.

These and other requests of a similar naure are valid but to fulfill them with greater speed and more efficiency than the City can do now will require the expenditure of considerably more municipal tax money.

Do you citizens want to spend this money?

Police Department

The present police department; composed of five men and the chief, is a good, efficient well-organized department. But it is under manned. For the City of Campbell a force of 11 men and the chief is needed—Such an expanded department would double the present amount of traffic patrol and allow for other needed facilities. It would also require the procurement of additional automotive vehicles and equipment. It is estimated that this expansion would cost $32,000 per year.

Fire Department

Additional fire houses will be needed in the area. This has been pointed out previously, But even without these new firehouses, the present fire department should be increased by two more full-time, paid firemen in the central firehouse to allow for the holding of drills and for two operator-engineers on duty at all times. It is estimated that such an expansion would cost $9,000 per year.

Street Sweeping

Street sweeping is another service where hidden costs occur. It isn't quite as simple as buying a sweeper and sweeping the streets. The sweeper cost could be amortized at $3,000 per year but it would take another $2,000 per year for operational costs. A new truck would also be needed (amortized at $1,000 per year) and additional both full and part-time at $5,000 per year.

Thus the cost of sweeping the streets of Campbell could be approximately $11,000 per year.

The cost of street repairs has already been discussed. However, even if no additional streets are added or the recommended major improvements made, it is anticipated that to do the repair service so many citizens have requested, would take two additional men at a cost of about $8,000 per year. With additional equipment it would bring the additional expenditure of $11,000 per year.

The City Council admits that the municipal services should be added to and expanded. But this can be done only if the taxpayers of the city are willing to pay for it.

This means all the taxpayers and not just one or two small groups who may have a particular problem that is of special importance to them.

The Revolving Fund

If the people of Campbell wish their city to grow and to operate on an equal basis with other cities, the City must have a revolving cash fund available from which advances could be made for immediate construction of needed facilities.

Such a fund would put the City in a positioon where it could attract industries and commercial developments, which in turn, would lessen the tax burden of the individual house owner. In the overall picture it would cost the taxpayers of Campbell nothing and would result in this city being in a fair bargaining position with respect to annexations of property adjacent to its present limits.

It is estimated that a revolving fund of $250,000 would be necessary.

But what is a revolving fund and how does it operate?

How It Works

The following hypothetical case illustrates the "how" and "what" of such fund:

A developer of property, for example, adjacent to Campbell finds it difficult because of financing to develop his property either for a subdivision or for a commercial or industrial use without adequate storm drainage facilities for the property. The most feasible way to drain it would be by one of the proposed Campbell trunk lines. But the cost for such a line would be too large for one developer to finance.

Although the cost of the system would be borne by all property owners between the city limits, the assumption in this case would be that the other property owners were not now desirous to develop their property.

So the developer explains to the City of Campbell that he can't develop his property without a storm drainage system and the Campbell system is the best way to drain it. He adds that he is willing to be annexed to the City, provided the City of Campbell helps him out in the construction of the main trunk. It is possible also, he claims, to use the City of San Jose facilities for drainage and he can also annex to that city.

Rival City Wins

Because of the lack of a revolving fund at the present time by the City of Campbell, this City cannot assist in the construction of a trunk sewer or any other facility. Thus San Jose is able to step in.

An adequate revolving fund would have allowed the developer to pay his fair share of the trunk or other facility to be constructed with the City of Campbell advancing the balance out of the fund. As other properties which would use this trunk sewer developed, they would also pay their fair share and upon the development of most of the property involved, the City of Campbell would be repaid in the amount that it had advanced out of the revolving fund.

Thus money in such a revolving fund is not a lost expenditure. It would be just what it says, a revolving fund . . . period. Advances could be made from it with repayments to, it by those benefitted from it.

Campbell Suffers

The City Council has been criticized because it has not developed an aggressive annexation attitude. Comparison with the annexation approach of other cities, particularly San Jose, shows Campbell's weakness. But an adequate revolving fund plays an important role today in the highly competitive field of annexation. Campbell suffers by comparison.

The question of annexation does not crop up as a rule until after orchard land is ready to be developed and the developer wishes to obtain municipal services that are necessary and essential to him. In most cases, the developer is not the original owner and is acutely aware of what some cities do for them in exchange for annexation to the city.

In the past when the City of Campbell has been in "competition" with a rival city Campbell has found itself in a very poor bargaining position because the City had nothing to offer in a material way.

A revolving fund could have thrown a different light on the subject.

Rotary Holds Dinner-Dance

A record number of members turned out Monday night to attend Rotary's ninth annual Anniversary Dinner-Dance at Mariani's. Guest speaker was George Chaffee, Rotary district governor, who talked on the meaning of Rotary. Included on the guest list were Rotary presidents and secretaries from Saratoga, Los Gatos, San Jose, West San Jose and Santa Clara.

Lending to the merriment of the dance was Cel Gerevas, self-appointed "mixer-uper' who spent the evening tagging members' wives. Surprise of the evening was Attorney Norman Stoner who amazed his brother Rotarians with his exhibitions of the Samba, Rhumba, Cha-Cha-Cha and other new dances.

Red Cross Fund Drive Progressing Well This Week

Campbell's annual Red Cross drive for this year's quota of $5,720 rolled into action this week, according to Mrs. E. H. Ryan, branch chapter chairman, who revealed that total amount of funds contributed at press time this week had reached $3,612.24. The drive still has one week to go and Mrs. Ryan expressed confidence the full quota would be subscribed.

The total amount reported by Mrs. Ryan at last Thursday's weekly report meeting at San Jose chapter house was $2,361,89, or 40% of the quota.

The quota for the San Jose chapter and its six branches, which includes Campbell, is $182,400. Drive Chairman Patrick H. Peabody expressed disappointment over total contributions reported last week and urged workers to heighten their efforts. After a good beginning the first week, only 8 per cent or $13,357.15 was turned in at the second report, though a total of $117,292.98 has been reached.

In the Strawberry Park area, Mrs. A. WHAT'S DOING

T. K. Nordheim, your Telephone Manager in Campbell

Candy-cane wire—not good to eat but very good for getting phone service to folks living in rural areas. It's a kind of cable—six pairs of brightly colored wires wrapped around a supporting core. Candy-cane wire serves as many people as six separate lines would and is much easier to put up and maintain. The colors make it easier to identify lines. Candy-cane wire is one of the many developments that helps us meet the growing telephone needs of the Pacific West.

R-O-H: That's what telephone line testers call it when they run into the situation like the one at the left. It means "receiver off the hook." A receiver hasn't been replaced quite right or it's accidentally propped up by some object. Whatever the cause, the plungers don't go all the way down and your line is as "busy" as if you were talking. It can cause you to miss calls. Watch out for R-O-H.

Peter Rabbit Wins

Bill Banning Crime Comic Books in State Loses in Assembly Decision

Capitol News Service

A bill to ban the sale of crime and horror comic books to persons under 18 years of age went down to final defeat in the assembly amid cries that it would prohibit children from reading of the affairs of Peter Rabbit.

The bill, AB64 by Frank G. Bonellin (D-Huntington Park) had been held in the judiciary committee. The assembly voted 37-27 against withdrawing the measure from the committee.

In the 1955 session, Bonelli had been successful in overriding the judiciary committee but the bill later was vetoed by Gov. Goodwin J. Knight on grounds of unconstitionality.

Assemblyman S. C. Masterson (D-Richmond), one of the opponents of Bonelli's motion, said the bill "would make any grandmother who purchased a copy of Peter Rabbit for her granchildren guilty of a misdemeanor."

The bill had been opposed strongly by John B. Long, general manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Association, on grounds it was a censorship bill and such censorship should be left to parents of the children.

Those who voted to overrule the judiciary committee (or in favor of the bill, included: (27) Don A. Allen, Backstrand, Beaver Bonelli, Bradley, Britschgi, Chapel, Crown, Cunningham, Francis, Gaffney, E. R. Gedes, Holmes, House, Johnson, Kilpatrick, Klocksiem, Levering, Marsh, McCollister, McGee, McMillan, Miller, Pattee, Shell, Thomas and Wilson.

Fred Andres Wins Student Election

Fred Andres heads the student body of the Cambrian Elementary School as a result of the semi-annual election held by the 7th and 8th grade classes of the school. Carolyn Long is vice-president and Karen Brandon is secretary.

A spirited campaign was conducted with 14 candidates in the field for the student offices. In order to run for these offices a student must have an A-average, be good citizens and have a petition signed by 50 students.

Recently elected also were student council representatives (one for each 7th and 8th grade) These students represent their rooms in making school policies and they also must maintin a "B" average.

Elected to the student council this semester were: Bob Bergthold, Gwynn Fleming, Bill Fuller, Diane Dinardi, Bill N. Smith, Sam Pineta, Nella Randolph, Rudy Sapien, Molly Sherman and Donella Whitehead.

Read this vital information on the water supply of Santa Clara Valley

1. The water supply of this valley comes entirely from rainfall. Nearly all water for home, factories, and farms is pumped from beneath the valley floor. There are over 4000 wells in the area.

2. We replace the enormous amount of water we use annually — 48 billion gallons — by catching the winter rains with storage dams, and then letting the stored water seep or "percolate" into the gravel underground.

3. The Water Conservation District, supported by your taxes, is our only means of maintaining a safe, adequate supply of water for the valley. At this time the Water District must expand its water producing facilities to meet the present need.

4. Read the newspaper articles and pamphlets which describe the Water Conservation District and the $3,000,000 bond issue. Your Water Conservation Tax is small — the results are vitally necessary. The tax increase of these bonds will amount to 8 cents per month for the owner of the average residential lot.

We can all feel pretty good about paying taxes when we remember how the money comes back to us in "returns" like the happy youngsters we see on our playgrounds.

For it is the playgrounds and the parks, the schools and the libraries, the fire and police protection your taxes pay for that are everybody's "tax return."

Working alongside your tax dollars is a big share of the record tax contribution made last year by Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corporation. We're proud to know that our taxes are helping to make this community a better place to live in for all of us.

Abbott Case Again Brings Capital Punishment Question Into Focus

Capitol News Service

The question of capital punishment is one which has been debated pro and con for many, many years, and so far, it is no closer to being settled now than when the first opposition to the procedure was expressed.

It is even more in the minds of the public this week, because of the Burton W. Abbott situation, and once again, an execution during the session of the legislature is apt to bring on new interest in measures which are before the legislature to abolish the custom.

Two bills are before the assembly, one which would abolish capital punishment altogether, and another which would provide a six year "moratorium" on executions.

Neither of the measures, it appears, has much opportunity for passage, for it was nearly thirty years ago, during the 1927 legislative session, that the solons voted down bills to abolish capital punishment after one of the biggest and most intense battles in the history of the two houses.

At that time, the legislature put itself fairly well on record as to its attitude on capital punishment, despite the fact that sporadic attempts have been made nearly every session since to change the law. The gallows were abolished and the gas chamber substituted, but the result is the same, the criminal, guilty of taking a life, pays for the crime with his life, if such is the decision of judge and jury.

Many people are sincere and honest about wanting to abolish

Society most certainly has a recapital punishment. Executions are a difficult and distasteful chore to perform, and the idea of taking a life is revolting, no matter what the crime.

It would appear, then, that the subject should be approached not in a spirit of vengeance and in accord with the old Mosaic law, but as an answer to the struggle for survival.

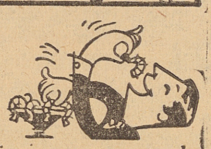
sponsibility to itself. It must maintain itself in an area of daily living which protects its members from murderers and other felons, and failure to do this is merely an admission that society is unable to take care of itself. And there is no indication that society will relax its vigilance against the criminal.

Admittedly, there are two methods of protection against the first degree murdered, first, the execution, to assure society that he will not again become a menace to other potential victims, and second, life imprisonment without the possibility of parole, which theoretically at least, gives society the same protection.

Because there are different opinions on the subject, it therefore would appear feasible to submit the matter to the people of California in the form of a constitutional amendment, providing life imprisonment for first degree murder, without possibility of parole, but so worded that if innocence could be proven, a pardon could be issued.

Such an amendment would permit the people of the state to make their own decision concerning disposition of this perennial subject. If the amendment lost, capital punishment would continue. If the amendment were adopted, the majority of the people would continue to exercise their authority to decide questions of major import.

Bright Ideas



TOPS IN DUNKABLE FOODS ARE ROSY SHRIMP cooked with the tails left on for "handles." The secret in shrimp cookery is not to overcook. Boil the shrimp for only three to five minutes in water. Drain and chill the shrimp quickly. When you clean them, either before or after cooking, try to keep the tails intact. Familiar ingredients in just the right quantities make a tasty sauce: To 1 cup of mayonnaise add ¼ teaspoon black pepper, 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Mix all ingredients, chill and serve in a bowl convenient for dunking.

DO YOU KNOW you can predict the characteristics of your child's eyes? Researchers for the Murine Company of Chicago report that if one parent has large eyes, the baby will probably have the same. If only one parent has slanting eyes, the children's eyes are not likely to have this shape, although it may appear in the next generation. If either parent has long lashes, there is every possibility that the child will also have them. The baby's eye color is determined by the genes in both parents.

WHEN THE CLOCK CREEPS UP on a busy day and company's coming any minute, try this quickie hot snack. Beat 3 egg whites until stiff but not dry, and fold in 3 cups of grated cheese and ¾ cup bread crumbs to make small balls or patties. Then for a royal touch, press a canned Royal almond (the blanched kind) onto each and drop in deep, hot fat (365 degrees) until golden brown, 3 to 5 minutes. Drain on a paper towel and skewer with toothpicks. Makes about 24 balls or patties.

BREAD AND LITERATURE ARE OLD FRIENDS and it is through English writings that many of us have made our first acquaintance with such delicacies as Bath buns, crumpets, saffron bread and other yeast-raised specialties. This old recipe for Bath buns makes amusing reading:

"Take one-half ap^nd^ of fine flour take of Sack and ale yest each six Spoonfulls and of rose water and 7 egg whites and all Mix these together set it by ye fire to rise while it is rising take ap^nd^ of flour and ap^nd^ of butter and Mix well together and put in ap^nd^ of flour and ap^nd^ of butter and Mix well together and put in ap^nd^ of Carroway Comfets Just before you make them up Butter your papers and put a Spoonful for a cake this will make six dozen."

COMING ATTRACTION . . . Powder-puff pastels to beautify your beauty tissues (so handy for hanky use, too)! At local grocery, drug and variety stores, wet-strength Scotties facial tissues will blossom forth this spring in colors like pink and yellow as well as white. Farmers May Pump Water Again From Streams in Area

Farmers and ranchers may again make use of Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District water by pumping directly from streams of this area, if they make application to the District office before April 1 and pay a modest water and service charge, it was announced by J. Robert Roll, engineer-manager.

This program has been appraised as being highly successful after its first year of operation, Roll maintains. Ranchers in areas adjacent to creek or river beds carrying Water Conservation District water have reported a huge pumping cost reduction, he said.

Purpose of the new technique is two-fold: (1) to cut pumping costs for agriculture, (2) to lessen the huge drain on the Valley's underground water reservoir which is caused by pumping.

The pumping operations are regulated by the Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District. Percolation activities of the District are not affected by the new pumping technique. Water conservation through percolation has first priority.

Buc Baseball Team Loses to Santa Cruz

By RICHARD FERGUSON

Power hitting was the rule of the day as the Santa Cruz Cardinals out slugged the Campbell Buccaneers on the losers diamond Tuesday afternoon by the narrow margin of 7-6. This is the second loss for the Bucs in as many starts.

Two pop flys were brought down by the Buc fielders in the first half of the first inning with the third batter fanning the breeze for the third out. Campbell led off with Ben Lujan going out third to first and LaBarbera popping out to short stop. Don Kitajima slipped a ball down third base line and went into first base standing up on an error by the the third baseman. Gene Bowen singled over third base but Hector Cordova hit into a force play on Bowen at second.

Santa Cruz scored their first run in the top of the second inning when Vega hit the third pitch served by starter Jim Keech through center and left fielders for a home run. Kirby kept the rally going with a single and advanced to second on a walk by Keech. Victoria sacrificed to drive in Kirby and boast the score to 2-0 in the Cardinals favor. Catcher Corbus snared a pop back of home plate to cut he Cards off short.

Tony Zanetto and John Kriewall popped out to right and left fields respectively to bring catcher Jim Corbus to bat for the Bucs. Corbus slammed a double down the third base line and reached home on a single by pitcher Jim Keech through the center.

Lead off hitter Ben Lujan drew the first walk of the game but Dave LaBarbera was thrown out short to first.

Both teams went down 1-2-3 in the third inning with Hector Cordova hitting into a smooth double play by the Cardinals second and first basemen. Bowen had previously corked the ball over second base to get on first.

Seven men got to the plate for the Santa Cruz team in the top of the fourth inning but despite a bases loaded, one out situation Campbell stopped the rally with two quick put outs. Tony Zanetto got to first base for Campbell without swinging his bat but was thrown out at second on a force play. Jim Keech also walked but Ben Lujan was thrown out second to first.

Both teams benefited by the fifth inning with Campbell getting the better break. Roger Almquist replaced Jim Keech on the mound and was quickly tabbed for two runs on two singles, a pop fly sacrifice and another single before a short fly was nailed down by Tom Perry in center field.

Campbells entire roster stood before the plate in the fifth inning. Dave LaBarbera led off with a single over the left short stop but was thrown out at second on a force play. Gene Bowen slammed a triple right down the center to knock in his team-mate Lee McNabb who sprinted around from first to score. Hector Cordova went down swinging with Tom Perry and John Kriewall advancing to first by virtue of the walk to load the bases. Jim Corbus connected on a 2-2 pitch just over the third base for a triple which accounted for three runs and tied the score at 5-5. Roger Almquist punched the ball over the shortstop's head to knock Corbus in from third and put the Bucs ahead 6-5. Ben Lujan popped out to short to end the Bucs biggest inning.

Jim Cole took over the mound duties in the sixth round and was tagged for two runs after he loaded the bases on two walks and a single. Hogan hit in the two winning runs on a double. Three quick outs cooled the Cardinals without any further scoring. Campbell failed to pick up a run in the bottom of the sixth as three men bit the dust.

Both teams went down 1-2-3 in the seventh perserving Santa Cruz's 7-6 lead with the Bucs on the short end.

Frosh-Seniors Swamp Junior Sophs in Interclass Meet at Campbell

By RICHARD FERGUSON

Practicing before the season began with an interclass meet the Campbell cindermen combined forces with the freshmen and seniors topping the junior-sophomore congregation by a lopsided score of 142-74 at Campbell last Friday afternoon.

Although seemingly worthless from the stand point of league play the interclass meet is probably just the opposite as it pits the boys against their closest rivals the men who are pushing them for squad positions.

Two injuries were overshadowed by the record breaking efforts of Gregg Hoffman and Mike Profit. Gregg Hoffman came out on top in the 330-660 and the 1320 with his own previous record in the 660 falling with his time of 1:33.1. Mike Profit put the shot 55 ft. 10-7/8 inches to smash his own record of last season. Profit is considered one of the very best shot puters in northern California.

Monty Nielsen pulled a muscle winning the 75 yard dash and sat out most of the days activities. Monty holds the SCVAL 100 yard dash record and will be sorely mnssed if he is out of action too long.

Pole vaulter Bill Peake broke his wrist in a bad fall into the pit and will probably be sidelined the rest of the season.

Two boys that are out for track their first year helped the seniors along with some important wins and can be looked for in future meets. Jerry Shenefiel topped the field in the 240 and also won the broad jump with a fine jump of 19 feet 2 inches. Bob Bridge captured both hurdle events even though he missed a step now and then. Bob will be right on top in every meet with the improvement of his step.

Last year the Buc track team brought down the unprecedented first spot in SCVAL competition and will be out to repeat this year with their second meet tomorrow with James Lick at Lick in the afternoon.

Los Altos Loses To Buc Swimmers

Last Tuesday the 1957 version of the Campbell varsity and B swim clubs got off on the right foot when they both defeated their Los Altos competitors with the varsity walking away 68-9 while the B's found the road a little rough in a 36-32 win. Los Altos led in the B division until the final relay race with a bad start turning the tide the Bucs way.

The varsity out-performed the Los Altos team in almost every contest taking first and second in every match.

Central Valley "Y" Branch Receives Official Charter

Presentation of the charter of the Central Valley Branch of the YMCA, which serves Campbell and six other Central Valley communities, was made htis week at the Central 'Y' in San Jose.

Officers of the Branch were chosen at an election which followed presentation of the charter, with John E. Faber, Los Gatos, named chairman of the board of management.

Other officers elected were William Henderson, Sunnyvale, vice-chairman; C. Russell Timpany, San Jose, recording secretary, and Harry S. Whiteman, Los Gatos, treasurer.

The Branch, which was organized last fall to serve Campbell, Los Gatos, Sunnyvale, Cupertino, Milpitas, Saratoga and Morgan Hill, has been operating with temporary officers, prior to being chartered.

Campbell is represented on the board of management by two members, Lowell J. Benson and Homer H. Hyde.

The charter was granted at a recent meeting of the Pacific South-West Area Council in Los Angeles, where it was accepted by Whiteman. Yesterday's presentation was made by Thomas L. Mitchell, president of the YMCA of San Jose and the Santa Clara Valley.

Campbell Tennis Team Starts Trek For SCVAL Crown

Campbells 1956 SCVAL championship tennis team has started its long march to the top again this year with a victory over San Jose high team and also a trouncing over the Willow Glen squad. San Jose fell 7-0 with Willow Glen bowing 5-1. Neither match was an official league tilt but they show that the Bucs have the team to work with.

San Jose went down in a clean sweep with every member of the Buc team defeating their opponents by wide margins. Gene Andres, topped Kaeno Hyashi 6-1, 6-1: Art Hill downed Ray Blackie 6-1, 4-6, 6-2; Terry Garrison over Bob Schrader 6-1, 6-1; Bruce Johnson over Mario Riuas 6-0, 6-2; Don Brown topped Vince Figlia 6-0, 6-1 with Bill Powell and Lance Mortensen downing their opponents in the doubles 6-3, 6-2 along with their teammates in the doubles events who defeated their competitors 6-2, 6-3.

Willow Glenn had it a little easier with the Bucs winning one contest and tieing another but couldn't muster the hitting power to down the flashy Bucs. Gene Andres lost the only match for Campbell while his teammates finished first in all the other events.

Easter Seal Sale Campaign Swings Into Action Here

The 1957 Easter Seal Campaign to help crippled children and young adults is under way in Campbell and throughout Santa Clara County, with a goal of $41,000.

Campbell chairman of the campaign, which will be conducted by the Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Santa Clara County is Mrs. Lowell Benson.

Carrying an appeal for aid to crippled children, 134,000 Easter Seal letters have been mailed to residents of the County.

Each letter contains Easter Seals in two designs, a brief description of the work of the Crippled Children's Society, and a return envelope for contributions.

"Will you help provide medical care . . . appliances . . . transportation . . . social service . . . employment in our sheltered workshop . . . vacations at our Easter Seal camp?" the letter asks. "Will you help train legs for walking . . . hands for independence . . . lips for laughter . . . hearts for happiness?"

All work of addressing 134,000 envelopes, stuffing, sorting and packaging for mailing was done by volunteers. More than 500 persons assisted.

The Santa Clara County Easter Seal Campaign is part of a nation-wide drive to raise funds for aid of crippled children and young aduts. Over 1650 local and State societies are affiliated in the fund-raising effort throughout the United States.

On Capitol Hill

By Rep. Chas. Gubser

Always at this period in a new session of Congress, the air waves and newspapers are filled with the anguished cries of Congressmen calling for economy. As the President presents his budget, their cries are echoed by letters from constituents which issue the familiar mandate, "Cut the budget at all costs."

Unfortunately, this session will probably follow the same lines as it has in my four years' experience as a member of this body. The cries of economy will fade away as the needs of each Congressional District become uppermost in the mind of its representative. Projects at home will become special cases and each of 435 economy axes will be heftily swung at 434 other districts. Letters from home will change in character and our constituents who are interested in specific projects or programs will ask for immuity from the economy axe. Many of them will even ask for increases.

If this session is typical of all others, President Eisenhower's record budget will probably be increased instead of cut.

On countless occasions, we shall probably hear that we should cut foreign aid, take care of our own people first, and maintain an even higher level of domestic spending. It would be interesting to keep track of these statements during the next few months to find out how many dozens of times foreign aid money could be spent on local projects.

In making these statements, I am not indicting my colleagues and proclaiming innocence for myself. To some extent, I definitely plead guilty. But this year should be different. I, for one, will cast a quizzical eye at all increases in the budget. Even when my own district is concerned, I shall ask the question, "Is this really necessary?"

The warning signs of inflation are all about us, and it is time we heeded them. Let's look at foreign aid on its merits. If it needs cutting, let's cut it; but let's not use it for an excuse to raise every appropriation for every bridge and every program ever conceived in the halls of Congress.

PTA HEARS ABOUT "CONFUSION STAGE"

"Juvenile Protection" was the subject discussed by Mrs. W. R. Morgan, chairman of the Campbell Youth Guidance Committee, at Tuesday's meeting of San Tomas PTA. She described the child's age from 13 to 16 as the "confusion stage" and said this is the critical period when children need a great deal of love, patience, understanding and kindness from their parents. She also stressed the years between 5 and 7 as the time when the foundation is laid for future behavior patterns and it is up to the parents to see that their children are properly guided, the most important influences in their lives being the home, school and church.

At the close of the meeting, a Court of Honor was held for Boy Scouts of Pack 30, under the direction of Charles Summers.

Cambrian Faculty Club to Apply For CTA Charter

The Cambrian Faculty Club unanimously accepted a new constitution whereby the group's name was changed to Cambrian District Teacher's Association when it met last Thursday at Farnham School. A resolution to apply for a California Teacher's Association charter was also approved. Upon receipt of the charter, the group will join the more than 400 educational associations belonging to CTA, and will become eligible to elect one member to the Bay Section Council, the policy making group for the CTA in the Bay Area.

Reports were given by Lee Dugan, chairman of the Curriculum committee, on the proposed expanded program for the "gifted child" to be put into effect at Cambrian School next year; Al Handley on the Library Club of America program which is designed to increase the outside reading of school children; and Al Vatuone on education bills pending before the State Legislaure.

Robert Meek of the Public Relations committee, submitted ideas for publicizing teacher's activities and Sal Colletto, also Public Relations, reported on the results of a recent questionnaire regarding member's attitudes toward the committee's function in handling personnel matters. Members were polled by Bill Lemon, Special Services committee, for their approval of several hospital and insurance plans.

Oher business included appointment of a nomination committee by the club president, Walter Owen, which will present its slate of officers at the April meeting.

At the close of the business meeting, Al Vatuone introduced Nadine Lidell, a San Jose State College student who is doing student teaching at Farnham School under the supervision of Mrs. Violet Pomeroy, and members of the Farnham faculty presented a skit dealing with teacher's professional responsibilities. In the cast were Robert Meek, Mrs. Loyce Swengel, Miss Jo Anne Scaletta, Al Handley, Miss Phyllis Wythe, Miss Anne Engelsby, and Mrs. Barbara Patrick.

SOCIETY TO GIVE SCHOLARSHIPS

In line with its Conservation philosophy, "Wise Use of Our Natural Resources", the Santa Clara Valley Audubon Society announces with pleasure the availability of five scholarships for nature study, according to Mrs. Albert J. Wool, president of the local society. Three of the scholarships are for the West Coast School of Nature Study, and two for the Audubon Camp of California.

These scholarships are made possible by the proceeds from Audubon Screen Tours, color films of wildlife presented by Audobon lecturers and open to the public at a moderate charge. This year, owing to increased public support of these Audubon Screen Tours the number of scholarships is double that of last year.

The scholarships are being offered to young people 18 or over who are teaching or expect to go into teaching, who will lead youth groups in nature activities, or will be camp counsellors. The purpose of the program is to provide conservation education and leadership in youth work of any sort.

Deadline for applications is May 1. They should be sent to Mrs. Eva McRaie, c/o Natural Science Department, San Jose State College, Washington Square, San Jose.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS

Please help us to continue our courteous and economical service to you. The Picketing now in progress against us is an effort to represent us as UNFAIR to organized labor. Our employee-employer relationships are ideal; every worker here being completely satisfied with wages, hours, and other working conditions. They REFUSE to accept the "benefits" of the Union, and if I were to sign with the union I have their word that they would seek employment elsewhere. I am in harmony with their convictions that we cannot improve our service by the Union's help. We leave others to join if they please and would like to remain free, as Americans, to work and serve you without the restrictions which unionism imposes.

If others need the coercion of organized labor to be "FAIR", we are proud that we do not have to be forced to do right. Nor would we be forced to do wrong.

Will you continue your patronage as in the past? We promise you the same, courteous, satisfactory service on all LAUNDRY and DRY CLEANING.

ORDINANCE NO. NS-9.61

AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, APPLYING INTERIM REGULATIONS TO LAND, PENDING THE ADOPTION OF NEW REGULATIONS FOR SAID AREA AND A STUDY BY THE PLANNING COMMISSION.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1:

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, having heretofore adopted a Zoning Ordinance under which precise zoning regulations may be adopted for any unincorporated areas of said County, and having adopted certain of said regulations for that certain property located in the County of Santa Clara and more particularly described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and made a part hereof by reference, and now being informed that said regulations are in need of study with a view to possible revision in the light of changing conditions of land development in said area and in surrounding areas, and being advised that said study will require considerable time for completion because of the territorial extent of these portions of the County of Santa Clara, the necessity for making maps, careful and thorough analyses of terrain and other facts, and the necessity of devising suitable zoning regulations for said areas, DOES HEREBY FIND that certain regulations of a temporary interim nature are urgently needed in said area to protect the public interest, health, comfort and convenience and to preserve the public peace, safety and welfare, pending the preparation of said plans and regulations, and DOES HEREBY ESTABLISH said area as an Interim Zone, restricting and regulating the land uses therein to those set forth in Section 2 hereof.

SECTION 2:

Temporary interim regulations applied to the area described in Exhibit "A" herein shall be as follows:

No person, firm or corporation shall hereafter, during the effectiveness of this Ordinance, erect, construct or occupy any building or structure or carry on or engage in any occupation or use except those which are permitted in an "A" (Exclusively Agricultural) Zoning District under the provisions of Ordinance NS-1200, as amended, being the Zoning Ordinance of the County of Santa Clara.

SECTION 3:

The Planning Commission shall undertake the study of this area and report regarding the zoning regulations adopted heretofore for said area and proposed zoning regulations which are recommended for adoption for the said area. Such report shall be submitted within the period of 180 days from the effective date of this Ordinance.

SECTION 4:

It shall be the duty of the Sheriff of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, and of all officers of said County herein and/or otherwise charged by law with the enforcement of this Ordinance to enforce this Ordinance and all the provisions of the same.

Any person, firm or corporation, whether as principal, agent, employee or otherwise, violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) or by imprisonment in the County Jail of said County of Santa Clara for a term not exceeding three (3) months or by both such fine and imprisonment. Such person, firm or corporation shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each and every day during any portion of which any violation of this Ordinance is committed, continued or permitted by such person, firm or corporation, and shall be punishable as herein provided.

SECTION 5:

If any section, sub-section, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance. The Board of Supervisors hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance and each section, sub-section, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be held invalid.

SECTION 6:

This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency measure and shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its adoption. The facts constituting such urgency are as follows:

The Board of Supervisors has been informed and believes that certain persons, firms and corporations intend to develop large portions of the described area for various and divergent purposes, that such pending development cannot be adequately controlled by existing regulations and that such proposed development, if uncontrolled, will place a hazardous burden on existing water, sewage and storm drainage facilities in the described area which are only minimally adequate for the present agricultural development and will disrupt and destroy the exclusive agricultural character of said area to the detriment of the health, safety and morals of the inhabitants thereof.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, this 18th day of March, 1957, by the following vote:

Let's Not Dream Too Much

Unless something unforeseen occurs, the new Campbell post office will be located almost directly across the street from the present office.

The building will face N. First St. on the rear of the old Methodist Church property. A driveway will be cut through onto Campbell Ave. There will also be a driveway from N. First St.

The Campbell Press takes considerable credit for the locating of the post office on this property. Originally, postal officials had chosen a site on N. Central Ave. for the office but stopped proceedings when it became apparent that public sentiment, as indicated by The Press, did not favor such a spot.

The Press has never maintained however that the old Methodist Church property is the ideal location for the post office. We can think of several spots in town that are better, in our opinion. But the site that has been selected is far superior to the Central Ave. location and we feel will serve the community adequately.

The Planning Commission has approved the preliminary plans and has allowed the necesary variance and issued the needed use permit.

We understand that there has been criticism by some city officials of the 20-foot driveway that opens onto Campbell Ave. It is claimed that such a driveway would increase the traffic congestion already existing on Campbell Ave. and that it would create a hazard for pedestrians.

We fail to see any merit to these criticisms.

Granted that it would be ideal planning if there were no driveways ever to worry about, the fact remains the proposed driveway for the new post office should not be singled out as an unique situation.

There always must be driveways. How else can cars enter from a street? We counted 11 such driveways (all crossing the sidewalk) in one block on Lincoln Ave. in Willow Glen.

Perhaps it would be the ultimate in planning, if the driveway could be eliminated altogether!

But we think it unfair to jeopardize the status of the new post office because of wishful thinking planningwise.

Vote "Yes" Next Tuesday

Next Tuesday, March 26. voters of the Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District will cast their ballots in a $3,000,000 bond election.

The Campbell Press strongly urges a "Yes" vote.

Voters will be asked to approve the district incurring this bonded indebtness for the purpose of improvements to and extension of the present water distribution system and providing additional percolation facilities.

We are convinced that the bonds, for these improvements are necessary, as water is the very basis of our economy. We are all dependent upon an adequate supply of water and without it this area cannot prosper or advance. But even to sustain our present economy we need more water because we are even now over-drawing our "water-bank".

The major portion of the water used in the valley is pumped from the underground and lately we have been withdrawing water from the underground gravel strata faster than it has been replenished. The $3 million bond issue will allow the District to develop new percolation beds. These beds would allow the water which the District is capable of storing to go underground as quickly as possible. They would also make it possible to store underground future outside water. This foundation for our water supply is estimated to take about $1,500,000.

About $1,453.000 is needed to provide for the expansion of canals which would assure faster delivery of water from the big reservoirs to the percolation areas.

About $16,000 is needed for studies of wasted water salvage and for bringing Santa Cruz mountian water into the valley. Another $31,000 is needed for office buildings.

The tax for the bonds is based only on land not improvements. It is estimated that it will cost not more than 16 cents per $100 of assessed valuation the first year and this will be reduced as years go by.

The operation of the District during its 27 years of existence has been rated as highly successful. Considerable study and research was made before the expansion plan was presented.

We are confident that the proposals will give the District the best return on their investment and will get the maximum out of the District's projects.

We recommend a "Yes" vote be cast next Tuesday.

Over the Years

By John D. Blaine

Campbell women have been accused by an Aptos woman with being uneducated. This charge was made in a letter to our Chamber of Commerce. Sam Cava, our Chamber's executive head, has assigned defense of Campbell women to this column.

Here is the letter: "I have several friends in your city. Some pronounce the name 'Cam-el,' like the animal. Others say 'Cam-ble,' with only the p silent. I think the latter is correct but cannot understand why educated people should mispronounce the name of the place where they live. Will you please enlighten me?"

I assume this Aptos woman's Campbell friends are women. Besides, everybody knows men are uneducated, so why boher to mention that?

This letter was assigned to me in a note pinned to it when it was received. But in the press of Chamber work I wasn't notified. I heard of the letter when the Press editor mentioned it on Feb. 28. He said Vivian Faulkner, Press social editor, had brought word about the letter from the Chamber office where she worked part-time.

When I read about the letter I sensed a subject for this column. On asking about the letter at the Chamber office I found it had been awaiting me about two weeks, a scandalous time. The woman had addressed the Chamber "Gentlemen." But no gentleman would leave a woman's letter unanswered so long. Sam said he would write and say he had turned the letter over to a gentleman!

So I hastened to write and say lack of a reply had not been due to lack of interest. On the contrary, the Chamber had been carrying on research in how to pronounce Campbell over the world. I lied, but any real gentleman will lie to spare the feelings of a woman.

Reads This First

Perhaps this column is a particularly good place to discuss this subject. A woman reader of the Press told me she reads my colunm the first thing and thought others did too. This means, I take it, even before the social pages. I have no grudge against Vivian Faulkner, our attractive social editor; but if most Campbell women insist on reading this column first, what can I do against so many? (Yes, I cribbed that one from the late and great G. B Shaw.)

The question of how to pronounce Campbell may appear small but it can lead toward clarifying a large subject. What is meant by "correct" English? After consulting many authorities I incline to the belief that correct English is the kind in good use in the given locality. For instance, English English is sometimesvery different from American English.

In the long ago I heard an English friend instructing his wife as to the contents of his lunch basket. Of a certain itms he said, "Don't give me plenty." Figure that out if you can. I couldn't; so I asked. The answer was that in English English "plenty" meant "too much."

American English

What is American English for Campbell? Better, what is Campbell English for Campbell? Back in 1887 I found Campbell people saying "Camel," like the animal. I have been hearing "Camel" in Campbell ever since. But that Aptos woman thinks the correct way is "Camble," and she hints that not to say what she says is to be uneducated. Possibly she is the one who in this large subject of correct English is uneducated.

But Sam Cava, a business man interested in the canning industry, says that if we are talking about Campbell Soup, even in Campbell, we should pronounce it Camble. And if we had a Campbell Soup Cannery in Campbell we might get so much into the habit of saying Camble that we should in effect rename Campbell Camble. If so, then in Campbell calling the tow Camble would be correct.

A Campbell woman writing me a fan letter said, "First, I want you to know that I personally like Campbell. I am glad to write it in the upper left hand corner of envelopes I address and see it beneath my name and street on the letters I receive. It could be that I am prejudiced since I have a number of Scotch names on my family tree."

Prejudiced? To be prejudiced in this sense means to love. This woman's letter shows strong love of Campbell for our good example. And how people of Scotch blood can love. The native Scotch language had words for saying "my dear" 50 ways. Let those pale souls who are prejudiced in favor of high-flown Spanish names, have them; but as for us, the red blood of Campbell!

OUT on the LIMB

George Vierhus

Whenever we get together with fellow members of the craft we almost always come away with new ideas. These ideas do not necessarily pertain to the profession and may not be practical but generally they are interesting.

Last Friday's dinner meeting of fellow newspapermen of this area was no exception. We sat next to Ralph W. Stauter, publisher of the Morgan Hill Times, and we are indebted to Ralph for two ideas on two widely diversified subjects (only one had any connection with a newspaper.)

For years Ralph has put out what he terms his "vacation edition" of his paper. This particular issue is almost devoid of news and we learned the other night that it is printed two weeks before the date of issue. The papers are then bundled up and immediately taken to the post office where they are distributed to the boxholders on the date of issue by cooperative post office clerks.

The office and plant are shut down and Ralph and his entire crew then take off on their vacation.

Morgan Hill's operation is considerably different than most others around here and it was generally conceded that such a "vacation edition" wouldn't work with the rest of us.

Nevertheless it touched off quite a discussion on the subject. Someone reported that Morgan Hill's plan was merely following the philosophy of economics who have long claimed that it was more efficient to shut down for two weeks and give vacations to all at the same time rather than stretching out the vacation period over a long period of time.

But sadly, and a bit enviously, each one of us allowed that our operation was such that it would not work out. That is, all except Ralph. He serenely claimed he was going to continue with his vacation plan. He liked the idea.

—o—

The other suggestion of the Morgan Hill publisher pertained to dogs and had nothing to do with newspapers.

We were complaining that "Checkers" our boxer, had learned how to climb the backyard fence and we were trying to figure out a way by which we could stop her.

The Morgan Hill publisher claimed that he had broken his dog of this very annoying habit by stringing chicken wire inside the fence and then running a light electric charge through the wire. He said his dog gave up the idea of going over the fence after her nose had been stung a couple of times. She now stays 'way back from the fence and won't go near it.

Along with this shock treatment, we are mulling over other ideas and we hope we come up with something.

Got any suggestions? We know "Checkers" would appreciate it. That garage gets darn confining after a while.

—o—

We received a press release this week, which describes a bracelet.

As you might guess, it is not an ordinary bracelet. Otherwise it would not be mentioned in this column.

The release informed us that the Medic-Alert Foundation of Turlock, California, has just completed manufacturing arrangements for the production of the MEDIC-ALERT identification bracelet so that everyone in need of the protection it affords can comfortably purchase it.

We are happy to give the program a boost. It appears to be a meritorious cause and worthy of support. The bracelet idea was developed by Dr. Marion C. Collins, after his daughter almost suffered a tragic death because of her allergy to tetanus anti-toxin serum had not been properly emphasized.

Dr. Collins and his associate, R. L. Puccinelli, conceived the idea of an artistic, silver amulet bracelet, to be worn by men, women and children. On the face of the amulet flanked on either side of the caduceus are the warning words, "Medic-Alert". On the reverse side appears the actual warning message, such as "diabetic", "epileptic", "blood type 'O'' Allergic to Penicillin" or other danger signal.

We have heard of several stories of the untimely death of sufferers from diabetes, epilipsy, and persons allergic to various types of "shots". Deaths could have been averted if the patients malady had been properly identified before the arrival at the hospital, or being picked up by law enforcement officers.

We think the idea is a good one and is an important and humanitarian program. Glad to be of service, Doc.

With the coming of Spring fashion shows have become increasingly popular.

We know, for we have been pretty busy of late shooting pictures of the gals in their spring dresses. (The pictures are set up usually at the dress shops prior to the shows). We sorta like such assignments but there are times when it makes us hustle to keep. up.

Last Thursday we shot a picture of models for Job's Daughters at Lia's dress shop at Hamilton and Meridian. Then 10 minutes later we photographed a group for the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist Church. The latter shot was at Roberto''s Dress Salon at Winchester Road near Latimer Ave., so we had to trot pretty fast to make connections.

But the scenery was quite nice.

—o—

As most of you know, we avoid engagements for Wednesday night, inasmuch as we have a standing one here at The Press. That's the night when we 'go for broke'. But we never know for sure how things are going to break.

For the uninitiated, Wednesday night is press night for us.

Against our better judgment, we accepted an invitation to talk to the Business and Professional Women last Wednesday night. We appeared before the gals as we had promised, (between shifts as it were) but our "talk", if one would stretch a point and call it that, was strictly informal. But the gals were very charitable about it. They even said they enjoyed it. We hope they meant it, for we wouldn't want to do anything that would jeopardize the cooperation they are giving the community.

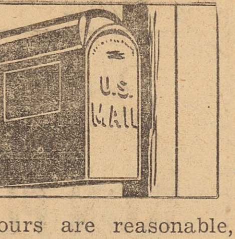
The BPW's latest project is to take on the membership drive for the Chamber of Commerce. We think the idea is terrific. Three women now hold top positions in the C. of C. Ann Levine is membership chairman. Emily McConnell is merchants committee chairman and Eleanor Jacobson is a new member of the board of directors.

There is nothing wrong with the Chamber of Commerce that a few hundred new memberships won't cure. With the entire BPW membership backing the three femmes in the top spots, we have a sneaking hunch the Campbell's C. of C. is in for better days.

We are all for it. It won't be the first time that gals have come through.

"Never underestimate 'em".

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR...



ABOUT THAT PICKET LINE
Editor, The Campbell Press
Sir:

We, the "Help" at the GOLDEN STATE DRY CLEANERS, 472 E. Campbell Ave., Campbell, ask that you help us inform the public that we feel the picketing now going on against our boss is "unfair" and "unwarranted". We are happy in our relationship with John D. Cooper, confident that he is "fair" to us in every way, to our customers, and o the public. Our wages are ABOVE union scale; our hours are reasonable, with understanding being shown to our persohal lives. He trusts us and we trust him. We believe he is giving the public a fair deal, and his customers satisfaction, because he is treating us most agreeably.

It is not "the boss' " fault that this shop is not "organized" as a part of the International Labor Movement. We conscientiously believe it right and proper to remain free and leave our boss free from entanglements which go beyond our friendly working agreements, no "contracts" being necessary. Why should we pay for any "benefits" which we do not feel we need? Why should our boss be penalized and our families made to suffer when we are satisfied without the "services" of the union?

We do not argue against any benefits to those who want them; we are not opposed to others joining. But in America, we believe in the right to work to support our families with honest labor. It is our firm conviction that we have not hurt the cause of organized labor and that our boss is NOT "UNFAIR" to organized labor.

We would appeal to freedom-loving, sincere, and honest Americans to help us in this struggle to remain free to use our own hands to work for an honest living. Continue your cooperation with us by patronizing our boss and we promise you conscientious service.

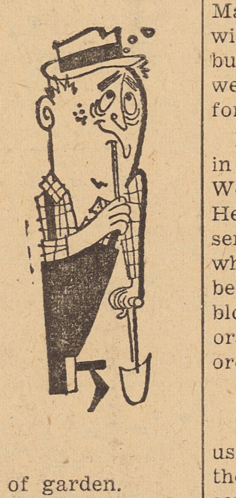
PLANNING ON PLANTING?



GARDENER'S CHECK LIST

By The California Association of Nurserymen

REMINDERS

1. Ask your nurseryman about the new chemical weed killers which will eradicate Bermuda and other tenacious grasses without poisoning the soil for prolonged periods.

2. Tree Roses give accent—Now is a good time to plant them.

3. Before planting a lawn consider treating the soil with one of the new soil sterilants to kill the weed seed.

4. Most established lawns would benefit by the application of a fertilizer now.

5. Try Azaleas in that partially shaded corner. The deciduous types such as the Mollis and Exbury hybrids will stand more sun than the Kurume and Indica types.

CORRECTION

In March 7 issue "acid soil" was used instead of "alkaline in article on "Lilacs". This was incorrect.

Lilacs are one of the few shrubs that will tolerate an akaline soil. A recent news story released to and printed by this newspaper stated incorrectly that Lilacs would tolerate an acid soil. Lilacs will be happy in an acid soil only if lime is applied to the soil annually.

KURUME AZALEAS

Kurume Azaleas,now in bloom, are among the finest flowering shrubs for California gardens. Because of their compact, low, spreading manner of growth, they can be planted in a variety of ways making them excellent for almost any type of garden.

The Kurume Azalea is evergreen and blooms from February to May with flowers often so profuse that they hide the plant itself. Hardy to 20 degrees, Kurumes can be grown successfully in most areas of the state. Plant these Azaleas as foreground or border shrubs, suggests the California Association of Nurserymen.

Handsome in tubs and raised beds, Kurumes can also be attractively planted in masses under trees or in garden beds.

The Azalea, a member of the Rhododendron family, has only a few cultural requirements. By meeting them, gardeners can assure themselves of success. Plant Azaleas in well drained, light acid soil. A mixture of leaf mold, peat and clean sand is good. Do not plant Azaleas in all day shade; they need protection during the heat of the day—12 to 3 p.m. Keep the soil around the plants moist, but not soggy.

Dig the planting hole two feet square and eight to 12 inches deep and fill in around the plant with peat moss to one inch above the soil level. Firm the soil around the root system, and do not plant deeper than soil level. If you garden in clay or adobe, plant your azaleas in raised beds of the recommended planting mixture because clay and adobe do not drain well.

Fertilize Azaleas on April 1, May 1, July 15 and August 15 with an acid reaction fertilizer, but allow your plants to become well established (2-3 months) before feeding.

Ground Covers

It's the smart gardener who uses ground covers to do part of the gardening covers that can several ground covers that can serve as plant-type "silent butlers" in your garden, says the California Association of Nurserymen. In hard to cultivate areas, under trees, over slopes, these ground covers are attractive fillers in, growing where most plants won't grow preventing weeds from springing up and requiring litle or no upkeep.

The Evergreen Strawberry (Fragaria Chiloensis) forms a thick, glossy carpet with large white flowers in spring and bright red fruit in fall. It will grow from six to eight inches high but can be kept lower by mowing two or three times a year. It will grow well throughout the state except in extremely hot, dry areas. Water regularly to keep attractive. This ground cover will tolerate only occasional foot traffic.

Ivy—English (Hedera helix) and Canary Island (Hedera canariensis) species—is a popular ground cover. Plant it over rocks, trailing along a path, under trees —wherever you want a work-free green carpet. Ivy will not survive foot traffic although it can come through a lawn mower no worse for wear when it's planted along the edge of grass lawns, etc.

Periwinkle or Myrtle are the common names of the Vinca Minor. This dwarf form of Vinca grows to six inches and is evergreen. It blooms in several varieties in spring and fall in white, blue or wine-red flowers. Plant this in partial shade. Vinca minor will take light foot traffic and its tight growth habit discourages weeds.

Chinese Pieris

A shrub of distinction is the Pieris forresti, or Chinese Pieris, for this shrub is interesting every month of the year.

The Chinese Pieris of the Pieris or Andromeda family is evergreen with long, wide leaves of dark green. It grows to six or ten feet in an open manner. In spring the new foliage is flaming red! In fall, delicate strands of greenish pink buds hang from the branch tips and these bloom, pearl white and urn-shaped, in early spring.

Plant the Chinese Pieris in shade and in peat or a mixture of leaf mold and peat says the California Association of Nurserymen, and keep the soil around the shrub moist at all times.

A sort of lone wolf shrub, the Chinese Pieris is most attractive when planted by itself or with other Pieris species, the Lily of the Valley shrub, Pieris floribunda and Pieris nana. These Pieris species are all handsome shrubs for the Western garden; the Lily of the Valley shrub (Pieris japonica) resembles the Chinese with the exception that its leaves are pointed, its flowers smaller and its new foliage bronze-red. The floribunda is smaller and more compact than either the Chinese Pieris or Lily of the Valley shrub and the P. nana is a miniature.

Because of its individual character, the Chinese Pieris makes an outstanding attention-getter in a garden
